

Stewards of the Week

The staff and students of Immaculate Conception Catholic School would like to thank the many people who helped make the recent Catholic Schools Week a success. We thank the members of our Home and School Association and Knights of Columbus that sponsored the Spaghetti Supper and the Immaculate Conception Life Teen for sponsoring the concert with all proceeds going to pay the debt on the school building. We thank the Home and School Association that sponsored ice cream sundaes for the students during Student Appreciation Day, snacks and a sandwich luncheon for our teachers, Family Focus Breakfast, and more! We are grateful to our priests, musicians, Cherub Choir, sports teams, and to our visitors who continue to support the Catholic formation of the children of our parishes. We are blessed!!
